Handoff Points

The value stream opens with the Onboarding Coordinator (7.3.1), who owns the employee's entry into the organization end to end — program design, implementation, and monitoring all sit in one lane, the cleanest single-owner match in Perform-to-Grow.

7.3.2 Manage Employee Performance is owned by the HRBP Manager, but the process itself hands off outside the HR role catalog: 7.3.2.2 Review employee performance is executed by the employee's direct manager, an external participant rather than an HR role. The HRBP Manager lane picks the process back up for objective-setting, documentation, and program monitoring around that handoff.

7.3.3 and 7.3.4 both sit in the Director of L&D lane — the largest lane in this value stream at 11 of 18 steps. The handoff into this lane from 7.3.2 is a shift from performance administration to development: guideline-setting and succession work (7.3.3) flow directly into training design and delivery (7.3.4), with the HRBP Manager retained as Consulted on 7.3.3's guideline-setting activities.
